Introit "Go Tell It on the Mountain"

Ginger Garner & Jeff Jablonski

*Call to Worship

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Come let us go up to the Lord's mountain so that we might receive God's good gifts!

O come let us adore Him, who alone brings us light, hope, and life!

*Hymn UMH 245 "The First Noel"

*Opening Prayer of Confession

Coming God, you announce the advent of a new and exciting transformation where the hungry will eat their fill and the oppressed will dance in newfound freedom. We long for change in the world and our lives but confess that we find ourselves squirming as we acknowledge our participation in structures that oppress and marginalize. Forgive us for what we have done and for what we have left undone. Come into our parched world and shower us with your abundant water of life. Enter into our brokenness, and renew us with the strength of your love so that we might experience the everlasting joy that causes deserts to blossom and grieving hearts to rejoice. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

(all pray in silence)

*Assurance of Pardon

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven! Glory to God! Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

Lighting of Advent Candle

Signs and wonders begin to take place, and all creation begins to notice the changes. Deserts blossom, feeble knees are strengthened, eyes are opened, and good news begins to travel everywhere, even to those in prison. Today, we light this third advent candle as we join all creation in anticipating the job of God's coming reign and restoration of life.

OUR GIFTS

-In memory of Carol Prescott's friend, Evelyn given by Harold & Louise Fulp.

-In memory of Mary Bergazzi given by Carla Dean.

The season of Advent and Christmas holidays often bring joy and happiness to many, but it also means not everyone feels like being cheery, joyful, and upbeat. The season seems more like a time of despair and darkness instead of hope and light. Many are dealing with the death of a loved one, facing life after divorce or separation, coping with the loss of a job, living with cancer, or some other disease that puts a question mark over the future, and a number of other human situations that result in seasonal parties being painful instead of jovial. Many in our community are living through dark times this Christmas season, especially in the aftermath of Florence. Swansboro UMC on December 21, in the Assembly Hall of building 3, at 6:00 pm will have a Blue Christmas/Winter Solstice service. This will be a service of reflection, acceptance of where people really are, and a reiteration of the healing and hope in God; who overcomes the darkness people face. Come to reflect, recognize your pain, and know that an Almighty and Gracious God is with you!
