7. New Business –
  - a. Update on combined UMM – UMW Church-wide Christmas Social in December –would replace the SUMM Christmas Banquet—will not do this year.
  - b. Veterans Lunch = Wednesday, 20 Nov. 11:30. Was a rousing success.
  - c. 2020 SUMM Board Positions – still need additional & new volunteers
  - d. 2020 SUMM Fellowship Meetings – all concurred to go to bi-monthly Fellowship Meetings, mainly due to falling/low attendance by the men of the Church.

Closed the meeting in Prayer – Chaplain Bill

Experience the presence of God through wind and water, through story and song, through friendships that last a lifetime. Don Lee Center has offered Christian camping experiences to all ages for more than 50 years.

Nestled on the north shore of the Neuse River near Oriental, North Carolina, it is an ideal setting to learn to sail, to explore God's creation and to grow in faith.

Don Lee summer camping programs offers a nationally recognized program of excellence in sailing and coastal adventures that is centered around small group Christian living. The main goal of the various summer programs offered is to teach campers what it means to work as a team and help them develop their faith all while having fun participating in amazing activities.

Don Lee Center offers ideal programs for children and youth through the Common Ground school program looking for cooperation and team building skills. Coastal Communities, a school program that takes a closer look at the coastal and river ecosystems, helps nurture over 4000 students each year.

Don Lee Center also serves as a retreat center offering a place for groups of all sizes and backgrounds to come together and bond through fellowship during meals and activities. They have hosted various groups that range from families to church groups to college organizations.

Don Lee Center seeks to nurture persons to become spiritually mature who, motivated by God's love, will live and practice lifestyles of care for the common good.
