Searching the Scriptures – Readings for Jan. 31- Feb.6:

Is. 6:1-8, (9-13) Ps. 138 1 Cor. 15:1-11 Luke 5:1-11

Reflection Questions for Jan. 31- Feb 6:

1. Today's scriptures demonstrate the role of God's redeeming and restorative grace. In what ways have you experienced God's redeeming grace in your own life and calling?
2. How does God use our flaws to shape our calling, as individuals and as a church?
3. In what ways have our communities been shaped by shame? How might we be called as grace-filled people who have experienced God's redeeming grace, to reform our communities through the removal of shame?
4. In what ways have we, as the church, shamed people and thus denied their being used fully in the context of their calling? How might this apply to those who have historically been marginalized in their calling?
