Welcome and Announcements

Centering Prayer

Song of Preparation “Hark! What Mean These Holy Voices”

*Greeting

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

In this season of prophecy, promise, and preparation, we come to be renewed and refreshed.

We come to be inspired by stories of a messiah who will change the world—and change us.

We come to listen for words of hope and joy, promise and challenge.

We come with open ears, open minds, and open hearts. We come to receive the blessings God has in store for us in this season of waiting.

Come! Let us worship our God—the One who brings all things to fulfillment.

*Hymn UMH #211 “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel” (verse 3 and 4)

*Opening Prayer of Confession

O God, the stories of our faith have lost their power. We have heard the prophecies spoken so many times, the promises retold, again and again, the call to prepare ourselves for your coming repeated so often, we don't really hear or heed them anymore. We have replaced these messages of life: with guessing what presents we are getting, with preparing for parties and the social obligations of Christmas. Bring us back to a sense of mystery: a sense of awe, a sense of wonder, a sense of excitement, a sense of anticipation, a sense that something special is about to break into our everyday world. Help us prepare our hearts, souls, and minds for the coming of the Messiah. AMEN.

*Assurance of Pardon

Though the darkness seems so deep, do not fear. God is with us, Emmanuel. Turn to God who brings light into the darkness and be the reflection of God's light for all the world to see. In the name of Christ, you are forgiven!

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven! Glory to God! Amen.

*The Peace (As forgiven, reconciled people, let us show one another signs of reconciliation & love.)

Giving of the Bread and Cup

Anointing with oil Bren Feutz, Betty Tidquist

(All are invited to the table of the Lord. We serve by intinction, (take the bread and dip a portion into the cup, then partake), or by using prepackaged communion elements. Those unable to come forward may raise their hand and an acolyte or pastor will bring communion to you.

After receiving, you may kneel for prayer and/or go to one of our prayer stations to receive anointing and prayer from one of our lay Stephen ministers. Offerings left at the altar rail go to the Pastor's Discretionary Fund used primarily to assist the needy.)

Communion Music “Here is the Bread, Here is the Wine”

Prayer after the Meal

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit to give ourselves for others in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Hymn W&S #3047 “God Almighty, We Are Waiting”

*Dismissal with Blessing

*Postlude “Tell Out, My Soul”

* Please stand as you are able.
