

A Service for Good Friday

Prelude & Silent Meditation

Greeting Blessed be the name of the Lord our God.
Who redeems us from sin and death.
For us and for our salvation, Christ became obedient unto death, even death on a cross.
Blessed be the name of the Lord.

*Hymn UMH #286 “O Sacred Head, Now Wounded”

*A Bidding Prayer

*The Lord’s Prayer Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy Kingdom come.
thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

The Solemn Reproaches of the Cross

After each reproach, the pastor says “Let us pray to the Lord”
and all respond: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Tonight's service is an adaptation of the ancient Tenebrae service, which dates to the earliest years of the church. Coming from the Latin word meaning "shadows," Tenebrae depicts—through the extinguishing of candles and the dimming of lights in the sanctuary—the flight of the disciples and the approaching Crucifixion.

Even in the dark and desolate silence of the tomb, God has not deserted us. Even now we have the hope that was promised by the prophets and fulfilled in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. God is with us.
